***Attn: Artists and Critics*!
 The Real Show---A Stupid Alternative to the Other Student Shows. The Real Show is an entirely unjuried exhibit of student art to be held in the cafeteria of the S.A.I.C., Fri, 4-16 until 4-30 (or until it is all torn down, which ever comes first.) Hanging, or displaying the work is entirely up to the student, who is also entirely responsible for his/her piece. Present any piece you want, stupid art is preferred, but not everyone can do stupid art. If you are one of these people who has trouble creating stupid art, submit some work you've done which annoys you, or just bang something out for the show you don't care about. Amazing pieces are welcome, but vandalism and theft will be somewhat unavoidable, (probably even more so, now that I've mentioned it.) All work is welcome, the choice is yours. For this reason, it is a Real student show. Other forms of art besides 2 dimensional art (such as sculpture or performance) are fine if you can find a place to display, or present your pieces. The Real Show will open at 6:15pm, Fri. 4-16-82. Refreshments provided by Tri-R vending; soft drinks, in cups 25¢, in cans 45¢, hot beverages 25¢, chips & candy bars 30¢. Tape and staples will be provided, supply your own thumb tacks. for further info contact Brain Guy or Alex. *if you don't submit anything, come and appreciate the art, or criticize the hell out of it.

Thinking... impressions of spring break--- it's over, what happened; the photo lad wasn't even ever open to speak of, unless you had an overnight; the color print processor wasn't to be used; Anthony went to Mark's in Mich.; Ben stayed in Europe; I did a lot of painting; I didn't watch the Academy awards; there was no shows or bands playing here that I remember; the Brain went home; a bunch of people I know went to another state; I can't recall that any famous people died; I found out that all I need to join the C.I.A. is a college diploma and the ability to tolerate pressure... I've only got a few more years to go!
